Context area

Name of creator	Office of the President -- Barber B. Conable (President, 1986 - 1991)
Repository	World Bank Group Archives
Archival history	When this series was transferred to the Archives by the President's office in 1991, the transfer noted that the file on the Agency for International Development (AID) was with Mr. Kapur of the Brookings Institution history team and the file on the Department of the Treasury was with the President. Subsequently the AID file was transferred and interfiled. The Treasury file remains missing.

Content and structure area

- Scope and content      This series contains the records of President Conable's interaction with both Congressional and Executive branches of the U.S Government. The files include information on legislation affecting the Bank or its staff, briefing notes and minutes of the meetings with the Members of Congress and senior officials in the Executive Branch, and correspondence with the White House. A few documents are included from the end of the Clausen Presidency.
- A general file covers Congressional matters, in addition to files on the House of Representatives and the Senate. One subject file is included, on an initiative by the U.S. Treasury Secretary James Baker III and Senator Bill Bradley to develop a new strategy to manage international debt. In addition, one file is included on the Bank's relationship with the government of the District of Columbia.
- System of arrangement      Records are arranged alphabetically.
